UNDER REVIEW	The Local Politics of Border Control: Transnational Communities and Resistance.
WORKS IN PROGRESS	The Local Politics of Border Control . Dissertation. – This book-length project studies the intersection of borders, human security, and state-making in international politics, with a focus on the proliferation of border control measures. I take up the challenge of theorizing borderlands as unique geopolitical spaces and local communities as central actors. The theory explains local resistance against hardening, how local populations psychologically adapt to changing borders, and the influence of bottom-up demands on the content of state policies. The multi-method design encompasses quantitative analyses with original geospatial data, qualitative fieldwork at the United States–Mexico border, and observational and experimental survey tests using national data.  “We’ve always had a separation:” The Local Psychology of Border Walls.  Gender and Public Demands for Border Security (with Michael R. Kenwick and Summer Lindsey).  International Border Lengths Dataset.
